Secretarial Scribblings

Dear Members

It doesn't seem possible that another year is nearly over! Before looking at what next year has got in store for us, a big thank you to everyone who has worked so hard to make this year another successful one for the Club... the people who ran our three shows, Sonya Saxby for arranging the seminar back in January, Christine Parker and her helpers for Discover Dogs at Crufts, Susan Colborne-Baber and her helpers for Discover Dogs at Earls Court, to name just a few. And a very special thank you to Liz Porteous-Thompson, the editor of this newsletter. Sadly, due to other commitments, this is Liz's last edition as editor, but we wish her the very best and hope that perhaps she'll be tempted to take up the reins again at some point in the future!

Unfortunately it's been necessary to postpone the first Miniature Pinscher of the Year event until 2005, but we've still got some events next year to look forward to. As well as the championship show and two open shows, there's going to be a seminar on Saturday 22 May at Bagington Village Hall, near Coventry. As soon as they're available details will be sent to everyone on the Club's B and C judging lists and will be published in the Dog World and Our Dogs breed notes. With more and more people using the internet as a means of obtaining information, another new initiative for 2004 is a website for the Club... work on the site is currently underway and hopefully it will be launched early next year.

A great suggestion from Club member Louise Thomas for all members' names and contact details (town, phone number & email address) to be published once a year in Pencil Marks will be implemented in the next edition. This will give people who don't show their dogs the opportunity to get in touch with other Min Pinners. A tick box will be included on the subscription reminder for you to indicate whether you're happy for your contact details to be published. Talking of membership subscriptions, they remain unchanged at £7.00 for joint, £5.00 for single, £1.00 for junior and £7.00 for overseas. Please make cheques payable to 'The Miniature Pinscher Club' and send them to me at 3 Isaacs Close, Talbot Village, Poole, Dorset, BH12 5HE.

Hope everyone has an enjoyable time over the festive period and very best wishes for 2004.

Mandy

From the Editor.....

I can't believe another year is nearly over, where does time go, my oldest min pin is now twelve it only seems like yesterday that I went to pick him up. Why is it that when you are a child time goes so slowly and you can't wait to grow up!'

Unfortunately due to family commitments this will be my last newsletter as Editor although I will still play a part. I would like to thank all those that have sent in contributions in the past and to all those that haven't I hope you will make it one of your New Years resolutions to send something in for my successor. Nominations for newsletter editor will be requested in the AGM notice asking for nominations for committee members, etc.

Welcome to all new members, just because some of you do not show does not mean that you can't have a say, or you might have a question you would like to ask, so get out those pens and paper and get writing., you must have a funny story to tell of your Min Pins antics.

It was disappointing NOT to get any judges critiques for the Club shows, which is why this edition is a bit thin on the ground.

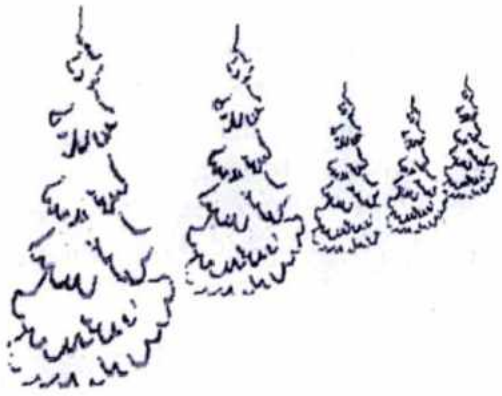
Thank you to everyone that called. E-mailed or sent cards wishing me good luck for my recent operation, it was much appreciated.

All that's left now is to wish you all a Happy Christmas and a new year's resolution be nice to all and show good sportsmanship.

Happy holidays



Notice
To All Members.

It has been brought to the committee's attention that there seems to be some bad feeling around the Min Pin ring with a few derogatory comments being made about certain dogs and their owners/breeders. While we will, of course, all have different views on the merits and shortcomings of particular dogs, these opinions should not be expressed in a malicious way, but should be aired with a view to looking at how the positive characteristics can be retained and how the shortcomings can be improved upon. We must not lose sight of the fact that the Club and its members exist to protect and promote the interests of the breed, and as such none of us should be making comments or behaving in a way that would have a detrimental effect on the breed or on the Club. Furthermore, it is in breach of KC regulations to act in a way that is discreditable or prejudicial to the interests of the canine world.

It is also important to consider what impression our behaviour gives to people new to Min Pins and to people not directly involved with the breed, i.e. judges, exhibitors in other breeds, etc. As a small breed we have got the reputation for being friendly and it would be a shame to spoil that with a few nasty comments or instances of bad behaviour. This is, after all, a leisure activity that we pursue in order to enjoy ourselves with our dogs, to spend time with like-minded people and, above all, to have fun.

Idle Chit Chat

Are we dropping our standards? A few exhibitors have voiced their concern at the number of dogs appearing in the ring with ridges and very bad miss-markings. At the end of the day it is the judges opinion, but if judges are going to ignore the faults as per the breed standard it does not bode well for future generations of the breed, as in due course these dogs will be bred from, thus passing on the faults.

Brenda Herbert and Lillian Dempsey would like to thank all those that helped in the search for Dandy (Darusmar Aces High) who did a runner at Builth Wells Championship Show after escaping from his pen. It was a very worrying time for all concerned, Brenda said the local Police and Security Officers at WKC were brilliant, as were people in other breeds who offered help in the search. Dandy finally found his way back to the campsite at 3am.

I had a note from George and Anne Allan (Whistlerfarm) they are, as Anne put it living the quiet life down in Cornwall with their Choc min pins but enjoy keeping up with Min Pin news through the newsletter and Dog papers.

For those of you with computers quite a few members now have web sites listed on the Min Pin Top Sites list. Here are a few http://members.aol.com/Lizanthe/index.html
http://members.aol.com/sansarcdogs/index.html
http://mysite.freeserve.com/lilyloo http://www.devoted-to-minpins.co.uk
http://www.kiralou.co.uk
when you visit these sites please click on the Topsites logo as this will vote the web site up the list, let's see if we can get a UK site in the top 10.

With effect from 1 Jan 2004 (i.e. claims submitted early 2005 for the calendar year 2004), only 1 show per day can be used when calculating points for the Club's trophies. When calculating points for this year (2003), the existing rules still apply as we felt we needed to give people notice of the change.

Don't forget Club subscriptions are due 1st January 2004

I don't know how Liz Thompson (Zilann) kept a straight face, she was walking her dogs and a fellow dog walker asked if they were Chinchillas!!!!!!.

It looks like Australia is going to bring in the no docking rule as of April 2004, breeders are still continuing the fight to overturn the ban.

It has come to light again that someone is passing off x bred min pins as pure bred and selling them with alternative registration papers. To all new min pinners, do your research, don't just buy from the first person on the Internet, go to a reputable breeder and make sure you receive the correct KC registration papers. There are some very unscrupulous people out there who think they can make money from our beloved breed.

There seems to be a lot of nastiness creeping into our breed, especially at ringside. Newcomers need to be encouraged, not put off at their first show, we all have to start somewhere. Has showing got so expensive that some of us have to win all the time to justify the cost? Win or lose, another day another show, display good sportsmanship and congratulate the winners.

Letter's to the Editor

In response to the note in Idle ChitChat in the summer 2003 Pencil Marks about crooked judging. Well I believe and probably many others do that it does go on and has done for many years. Many of us can actually tell who is going to get the tickets. Yes! We still go as we like our shows.
Some people could take in a monkey and still get it made up. It's no wonder that our breed does nothing in the Group. Some judges must be disgusted at what has been sent through.
In my opinion and other's like me, there are not many honest judges. It goes by who bred who, who used whose dog or their breeding, or I give you and you give me. You just have to look at the entries to see how many the judge gets. Some of the judges write ups make you want to fall about laughing, I just wish and many others do too that judges would do their own thing and be honest. Maybe if people swapped dogs the judging would be different or maybe put bags over our heads, they should be looking from the waist down not up.

Yours
Min Pin Lover

Hawksflight

We would like to thank Mandy Burns and Pat Rusden for handling and producing Ch. Hawksflight In the Pink at Impala currently Top Min Pin,and Ch. Hawksflight Lily the Pink to their titles.
In addition, Hawksflight All Fired up at Impala to his CC and RCC's.
All of this is a tribute to Tallulah ' Ch. Viva Forever at Hawksflight, currently the Top Toy Brood Bitch without this nothing would have been possible.
To you , daddy's little Lulu' !
We (Nic and Pete) thoroughly enjoy showing the min pins because of the great people in the breed, no matter how we do we always enjoy our day at the show.
Thank you to all the people who have had one of our puppies for giving them safe loving homes.

We wish all Min Pinners
Merry Christmas
A very happy and successful New Year 2004.

The Night Before Dog-mas

'Twas the night before Dog-mas, when all through the pound not a puppy was yelping, or playing around;

Our leashes were hung
By our kennels with care, in hopes that St Bernard would find us there;

Chihuahuas were curled up, all snug in their beds,
While visions of doggie-treats danced in their heads;

Max in his collar, on somebody's lap,
Had tucked in his tail for a midwinter's nap,

When outside the room there arose such a clatter,
my ears perked right up to hear what was the matter.

Away to the window I jumped up with glee,
And barked at the shadows that were cast by a tree.

The glow from the moon changed night into day,
and started me thinking, "Woof, woof! Time to play!"

When, what did my puppy-dogeyes did I see,
But a splendid dog sled, led by doggies like me,

With a regal furred driver
Commanding, not stern.
I yelped to the others, "That must be St Bern!"

More rapid than greyhounds our saviors they came,
and we barked and we howled, and called them by name:

"There's Duchess! There's King!
Fat Chance, and bare Buffy!
On Fido! On Scooter!
On, Rover and Scruffy!

Go by the red hydrant and run past those trees!
Nothing can stop you, not even some fleas!"

As puppies at play chase after a stick and race to their masters so lively and quick,

So out in the field his canines all flew,
catching the Frisbees, that St Bernard threw.

And then in an instant, I heard at the door
The scratching and clawing of each little paw.

As I pulled in my nose, and was turning around,
Through the door St Bernard came in with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his tail, his wood cask adorned with an icing of hail;

A bag of chew-toys he had brought in with him,
and his mouth was turned up in what looked like a grin.

His eyes-how they twinkled! his ears flopped, how merry!
His coat shone like crystal, his nose like a cherry!

His big sloppy mouth was drawn up like a bow,
and the fur on his chin was as white as the snow;

The stump of a bone he held tight in his teeth,
and his collar encircled his neck like a wreath;

He had a large face and a furry, round belly
That shook when he barked, like a bowl full of jelly.

He was fluffy and plump, a big, cuddly old pooch and I laughed when I saw him and gave him a smooch.

A wink of his eye and A wag of his tail;
we knew right away we'd have homes, without fail.

He howled not a howl, but went straight to his deed,
and took down our leashes that soon we would need.
He opened the door, and families stood there,
with children, all smiling, and much love to spare.

He leapt to his sled, to his team gave a call,
as if chasing a ball.
But I heard him exclaim as he chewed on a bone:

"Happy Dog-mas to all and to all a GOOD HOME!"

Merry Christmas & a happy, healthy & successful 2004
from Sue, Robbie, Mandy, Julie & all of the Impala Min Pins.

At the request of some people at the Min Pin Champ Show, I am sending you a recipe for the News Letter, so here goes.

Lancashire Cheese and Apple Cake

INGREDIENTS:-

Butter - 15g (half oz)
Self raising flour - 200g (7oz)
Baking powder - 1 heaped teaspoon
Golden caster sugar - 75g (3oz)
Dessert Apples - 725g (1lb 10oz) cored and peeled Stoned raisins - 125g (4oz)
Grated nutmeg - 1 teaspoon
Eggs - 2 beaten
Sunflower oil - 110ml (4 fl oz)
Lancashire cheese (or similar) - 150g (5oz) crumbled

METHOD

1. Generously butter a loose-based 23cm (9 inch) Cake tin.
2. Sift flour and baking powder together, Add sugar, apples, raisins and nutmeg.
3. Beat eggs into oil and stir into the apple mixture. Spoon half of the mixture into the tin.
4. Add cheese and top with remaining apple mix.
5. Bake for 1 hour @ 170c or equivalent for your oven, until golden.
6. Cool in the tin for 30 minutes, dust with icing sugar for decoration, if desired.

I can vouch for this cake it's delicious!
