WINTER 2008

Letter from the Editor

Well, I can't believe it, another Year over with, and may I take this opportunity to wish all Members, old and new a Very Merry Christmas, and a Very Happy New Year.

A sad one for most of those who knew Fred Leonard (Lionlike) and Veronica O'Gorman (Rowbarge), we have lost a lot of knowledge there, they will be greatly missed.

I really hope that we have a better showing season weather wise next Year, 2008 seemed to have been a total washout. Seeing people at Builth Wells totally flooded out was heartbreaking as well as soul destroying, it really makes dog showing and caravanning unpleasant, and for some Min Pinners, caravanning is the only way to get a holiday, so hopefully 2009 will find us slapping on the sunscreen!

I have to agree with our President, Heather Smith, about the comment she has made in her letter about breeding. Please, please don't just breed for the sake of it, we are all in tough times and these poor bitches are not money making machines, we are talking of a little life here, these girls were not just put on this Earth for breeding, We are in a recession, so think very carefully when you plan a litter, you may not be able to sell the Pups, as people do not have excess cash, and it would be so awful to see Min Pin Rescue overloaded, Susan Colborne-Baber and Di Stark do a fantastic job rescuing our little people and it is hard enough to find homes for those dogs that do end up with Sue and Di, who do a wonderful job at finding suitable homes, so please, think carefully. It is awful to see E-Pupz overloaded with litters and people asking extorniate prices for them, These are little living creatures, not just a clothing item that is being sold in a fashion store, that you can pick off a shelf and if you don't like it after a while dispose of it.

I am sorry that this letter comes across as strong, but I do feel that our beloved breed could get into danger, and I for one, as many of you, would hate to see this happen.

I hope you all have a wonderful showing season in 2009 and you get what you wish for.

Secreterial Scribblings

Dear Members

Another wet and windy summer for the show people and nearing the end of the year, no change in the weather!
Congratulations to everyone on successes in the ring and to the less successful –keep trying.
Having said that – I wonder if as many people will keep trying, in light of fuel costs and increased entries for shows? Even open shows are increasing entries – I have noticed some here with entries of £4 and even £5 per dog!
There must come a time when enough is enough and I for one will be counting the cost very carefully in future!
Current adverse publicity about dogs and breeders means the Kennel Club has imposed it's own Code of Ethics on all breed clubs. The Kennel Club Code of Ethics is reproduced in this newsletter and will now replace the Miniature Pinscher Club code of Ethics which you received with the club handbook. Thankfully we have a breed which is healthy and without exaggeration so hopefully 'Big Brother' will not interfere with us!
Can I again remind everyone that the Club has it's own website – www.miniaturepinscherclub.co.uk - ably run by Liz Porteous-Thomson. Please take the time to visit – we would welcome feedback and ideas for additions and improvement.
Can I remind you that subs are due on 1st January. They remain at £7.00 for joint, £5.00 for single, £1.00 for junior and £7.00 for overseas.
Please make cheques payable to 'The Miniature Pinscher Club' and send them to me at 'Bridgeholm', New Trows Road, Lesmahagow, South Lanarks. ML11 0JS.
To avoid becoming a 'lapsed' member (through forgetting to renew subs) and having to rejoin – you can make arrangements with the Club Treasurer, Susan Colborne-Baber – to pay by standing order.

Finally, I would like to wish everyone and their Min Pins a very happy festive season and best wishes for the New Year.

Harriet

PRESIDENT'S PEN

Firstly may I wish all the Members a very Happy Christmas and a Healthy New Year!

May I put in my wish for Christmas that next year's dog shows are drier with no mud (ok this is a wish!!!!!) I would like to remember some good friends and dogs we have lost this year. A very good friend to the Min Pins a past Secretary and Vice President, Mr Fred Leonard (Lionlike). Fred worked hard for the Club as our Secretary and had bred some really super dogs, Ch. Lionlike Black Reno and Ch. Lionlike Firefox, two from his top kennel and in many Pedigree's today. He was a great character and friend, someone you could always ask advice from, he would laugh and say "if it works please tell me so I can try it" he will be sadly missed but his legacy goes on in many Pedigree's.

I hope that 2009 will bring success to you all, but I do hope that you will think very carefully about breeding and make sure that there are enough good homes out there, with costs rising, vets bills, food etc, poor dogs are not at the top of people's lists, we don't want to see our special breed in trouble.

Please, let there be no more accidental matings as there are things you can do, ask your Vet for advice and more! "She loves puppies!" You mate your Bitch, she has no choice!! Breeding should be something that you think about carefully! I do hope that the increase in Min Pins is for the best of the breed and not for the money!

Remember in the New Year to get all your items for the Agenda to the Secretary, Harriet McLean in time for the AGM, this is your place to air your views, this is your Club.

Can I take this opportunity to thank all the people that help out at the shows and our events, without you the Club wouldn't run so smoothly.

Heather Smith
President

Dear Diary..... Richmond Championship show September 2008

I know life ain't meant to be easy ..... but, there are limits!

We had a great day yesterday but things didn't really go smoothly.
First of all, when unloading the car when we got to the show - I caught my ring in the trolley and it damn near took my finger off - said finger looks like a sausage this morning - thank God I took my rings off last night!

As all who were there will know, it never stopped chucking it down all day and the whole showground was a quagmire - I who have spent the last 10 weeks in flip flops cos of this bloody foot had to squeeze my wellies on cos the mud and wet was up over the top of everything and I'd have looked very stupid in flip flops ! - after an hour, I was in agony so had to swop to shoes (which were worse than the wellies!) I hobbled round all day! Foot this morning looks like a pound of sausages!

Connie won her class, Beth won hers - I was ecstatic - haven't won two classes on the same day in ages

We then had a debate as to who was going to handle who in the Challenge - guess what? No one wanted Connie - can't think why. I asked Mandy if she would handle Beth as obviously I couldn't ever show Beth under her - and I would take Connie back in myself. Sorted - then Mandy won Open bitch with Sophie so we had to go to plan B - Wendi takes Connie and I take Beth. If you can just imagine a prisoner going to the gallows and you have the picture of Wendi's face on entering the ring with said black and tan whirlwind doing handstands and spinning round on the end on the lead. Ok - now concentrate Aileen! I then just happened to glance across at Connie to see her standing gazing at Wendi with the face of a little angel and standing beautifully - see – shes not that bad Wendi!

The rain is by now thundering off the roof of the tent and you couldn't see outside for it - Beth gets the ticket - yippee !!!! The dog, who is a well known Champion and has LOADS of tickets will get BOB and we can all go home and light the fire and get stuck into celebrating - WRONG - Beth gets BOB and we have to stay after everyone else has gone home for the Group (am I starting to sound ungrateful??????) Toy Group in first - marvellous - might not be too late home after all. Get nothing in the group, then discover that Wendi's mum has had BOB with a Podengo she handles so now have to stay for the Hound group - ok - bit miffed but I got over it - rain now coming down in stair rods. Stay for Hound group , Podengo gets nothing so we trudge our way back through the mud and the muck to the car, load it all up with the dogs, the cages, the trolley and all the rest of the crap that we have managed to accumulate during the day.

Get everyone loaded in car, set off across the field to get back to the road and out - halfway across I realise we are in trouble - wheels don't seem to be making connection with the ground and it feels like we are driving across ice! Get as far as twenty feet away from the hard road and realise we are stuck - can't go forward, can't go back - send Wendi off for help as she is the only one who has boots on (I'm back in flip flops by now) Two cars behind us now stuck too.

Lots of mud flying round from man in Astra van who thinks that if he revs his engine and spins his wheels a lot, his van will unstick itself and fly to the road! Liz PT stops to see if we are ok and need any help (thank you for that Liz) but as neither of us has a tow rope she couldn't help. Friend in Bassetts with huge Chrysler Voyager stops to help but after tipping everything out of her car, finds she doesn't have a tow rope either! (£ 40 grand for a car and it doesn't come with a tow rope ??!!) Then, we flag down a man in a Landrover Defender - and he has a tow rope - lovely lovely man! Our next problem is we can't find the hookey thing to attach the towrope to - after consulting the handbook, find that it lives in a little hole in the bumper and we pull the cover off and stare in dismay at the empty hole - you need a screw thing to put in there. Back to the hand book - by now, Wendi has arrived back and there is more help on the way - I have now given up all attempts to keep clean and am spuddling round in three inches deep of liquid mud in flip flops, the air is blue and I am fast failing to see the fascination of dog showing in the UK! The book tells us the screwy thing is in the spare wheel hole - and where is that? In the bloody boot - which is full of dogs, cages, trolley and crap! Don't want to unload everything out of the boot into the mud so hit on brainwave - fold back seats down flat and pull dog cages etc forward - then we can lift up the boot floor and get screwy thing out. This was nearly a good idea but I didn't take the trolley out so as I lifted up the boot floor for Wendi to get the thing out, the trolley tipped over and came crashing down on my head. Air is now purple and I'm seeing stars for a minute. Take trolley out of car and lay it on the grass ten feet away where it can't do any more damage. Under boot floor, screwy thing no where to be seen, so we undo the spare wheel and there is the little sod, sitting smugly in a little storage bit all of it's own - yell in triumph that we have found it, give it to lovely man who screws it in and attaches tow rope to car. We chuck everything back in, I go to get in car to steer it out on the end of the rope and realise that I don't have the car keys - I've lost the keys - frantic hunt then for keys, lovely man starting to lose patience with scatty, blaspheming woman and threatens to unattach rope from the front of the car and tow someone else instead. Find keys in boot where I'd put them down and jump back in car - within seconds we are on hard road and its all ok! Wendi, Bet and Thelma all climb back in again - we say lots of grateful thanks to everyone who helped us and get the hell out of there, all of us up to the knees in mud, soaking wet and so looking forward to that blazing fire and glass of wine!

See you all at the next show???

Ps – have now bought a tow rope, screwy thing lives in the glove compartment and will not be going to any more shows unless the weather forecast is for brilliant sunshine!

Aileen Coull
